

A Midsummer's Night Dream

by William Shakespeare

Directed by Avi Seaver

July 14-16, 21-23, 1972

The Story

William Shakespeare's classic tale of lovers and the King and Queen of Fairies. In the forest, a young couple are running away followed by the two they are suppose to marry. At the same time, a group of trade people are rehearsing their play for the King's wedding. Both groups find themselves in the middle of the King and Queen of Fairies latest fight. By dawn, the queen will have falling in love with one of the mechanics (who is wearing an ass's head), and the young lovers situation will be even more confused
