

The Odd Couple

by Neil Simon

Directed by Betty Gibson

December 3-5, 1970

The Story

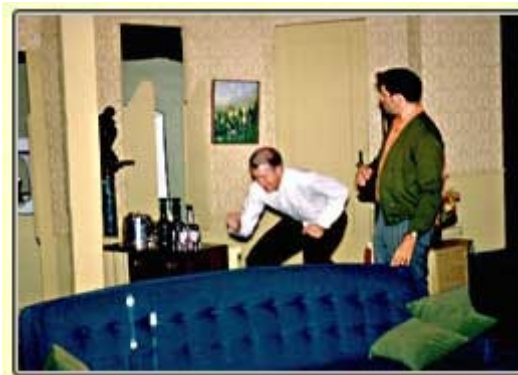

The weekly poker game is on at Oscar's apartment. The place is a mess, the food is inedible, and meticulous Felix is missing. When they discover that he and his wife have separated, the guys are concerned that Felix might commit suicide. To their relief, he shows up safe and depressed. By the end of the evening, Oscar and Felix are roommates. Their friendship comes under a major strain. However, they soon learn they are better friends living apart.

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

 The Cast

Speed	Bill Wilber
Murray	Tom Herlocker
Roy	Don Gibson
Vinnie	Don Wilson
Oscar	Warren Andreas
Felix	Wayne Cherveney
Cecily	Cheryl Fruits
Gwendolyn	Sharon Sheflar

 Production Staff

Director	Betty Gibson
Assistant to the Director	Jane Cherveney
Sets	Carole Nahnsen-Design, Tom Bossi*, Errol Lambert, Tom Nahnsen, Gil Gentry, Libby Clifford, Roy Kempf, Kim Rice, Jime Hale, Kathy McMillan, Milly Meyer, Robert Meyer
Costumes	Norma Bossi
Properties	Gennie Thomas*, Margaret Archer, Norma Bossi, Joan Kaufman, Veda Rogers
Lights and Sound	Bill Wilber, Jr.*, Virginia Wilber
Make-up	Jane Lamb*, Noemi Mesourex, Libby Clifford
Publicity and Promotion	Arden Andreas
Programs	Don Wilson
Posters	Storme Maynard
House Management	Roy Kempf, Fran Kempf
Display Signs	Roy Kempf
Concession Stand	Worrall Clift, Jane Clift
Lobby	Dorothy Richardson*, Trudy Knowles, Libby Clifford

*Chairperson

